A message from the Governor

May 2008

Dear Friends:

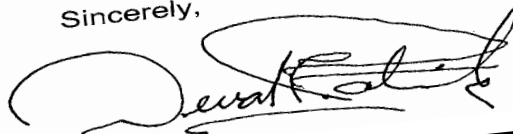

On behalf of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, it is my pleasure to welcome you to Boston and to the Tenth Annual Statewide Training and Resources (STAR) Exposition.

Since its inception in 1999, the STAR Exposition has grown to be the largest trade show of statewide contractors in the Commonwealth with more than 300 exhibitors participating this year. The STAR Exposition provides contractors a unique opportunity to market their products and services to existing and potential Commonwealth customers including the states' cities and towns and health and human service provider agencies.

I commend the organizers and exhibitors for their hard work and applaud their efforts to enhance the Commonwealth's efforts to provide the most efficient and cost effective system for purchasing goods and services that are vital to our state departments and municipalities.

Best wishes for a productive and enjoyable Exposition.

Sincerely,

A Message From the State Purchasing Agent

On behalf of the staff at the Operational Services Division, I'd like to welcome you to the STAR 2008 Exposition. For one day, you have an opportunity to meet many of the statewide contractors available to provide the commodities and services needed by your agency, city, town, authority, commission or not for profit organization.

If you have questions about existing products or services, the companies represented here will probably have the answers. If you have questions about Statewide Contracts or about the procurements being planned, staff at OSD are in attendance and available to help you. Please take advantage of your time here to visit the exhibitor booths and participate in the over 20 training opportunities offered. The STAR event is 100% contractor supported and funded from the sale of exhibitor booths and sponsorships. At the end of your day at STAR, we hope that you leave with fresh ideas, updated information and new contacts.

Finally, I would like to extend a special THANK YOU to all those involved helping to make STAR 2008 a success, our vendors on contract, the departments offering training, the many volunteers and the staff at OSD.

Thank you for coming and enjoy STAR 2008.

Sincerely,

Ellen Bickelman

Creed of a Procurement Management Team Member

What is a Procurement Management Team Member? As a member of a Procurement Management Team (PMT) a member supports projects of mutual interest between the Operational Services Division (OSD) and an Eligible Entity. A team member manages their work schedule to make themselves available during a specific time period. A team member also strives to develop an effective and all-encompassing Statewide Contract in support of Commonwealth Procurement Regulations 801 CMR 21.00. As an active team member information will be submitted to the team on specific goods and/or services to ensure that any contract developed offers the Commonwealth the best value available. Where and when it is possible a team member will work to monitor contract usage, communicate with vendors and address any and all complaints that might arise during the contract term.

This is why PMTs are so important and Statewide Contracts are so effective. Many PMT Members believe and support the Creed of a Procurement Management Team Member although for many the responsibility is great, the hours are long and it comes in addition to their daily responsibilities. Where is the reward? For some it's in the fact that the Commonwealth saves money! Some feel rewarded in knowing that they were able to determine the destiny of a specific commodity or service for their department's use. For others there is gratification in knowing that they have participated in a fair, open and competitive process; and that all interested parties have been heard.

The list of PMT Members is long. Plus, the list changes as the projects are completed, but a deep and sincere appreciation is extended to all department heads and supervising managers for allowing their staff to participate in the Commonwealth's procurement process. It is successful because those participating care.
